

Every exponent of the sum falls away;
no exponent makes the mean fall

Filled circle: the largest value of each sum on the range drawn.
The four means lie on one plateau, which is $\lambda_{\max}$ of the normals' covariance and does not depend on p ; the four sums leave that plateau at a rate p , each on its own units.